CONCACAF Women's Under-20 Championship Draw and Logo Unveiling Set for Tuesday, November 5

MIAMI (Wednesday, October 30, 2013) - The Confederation of North, Central America and Caribbean Association Football (CONCACAF) is pleased to announce the official draw and logo unveiling for the CONCACAF Women's Under-20 Championship 2014 Cayman Islands, to take place on Tuesday, November 5. The draw will be conducted at 7 pm EST (6 pm Cayman) at the Westin Grand Cayman Seven Mile Beach on Grand Cayman.

The draw, which will sort the eight finalists into two groups of four, will be presided over by CONCACAF President Jeffrey Webb and conducted by General Secretary Enrique Sanz.

Seven teams from across the region will join host Cayman Islands for the Championship, to be played January 9-19, 2014. All eight squads are hoping to become one of the three regional teams to join host Canada at the 2014 FIFA Under-20 Women's World Cup, to be hosted by that CONCACAF member nation.

"We look forward to our return to the Cayman Islands, this time for the CONCACAF Women's Under-20 tournament," said Jeffrey Webb, President of CONCACAF. "As a confederation we are proud to be the center of international women's football in 2014 and 2015, when we will be the gracious hosts to all of FIFA's official Women's World Cup events in a short span of 17 months. These global events will help accelerate the continuous development of women's football in our region."

CONCACAF will host all of FIFA's Women's World Cup events in 2014 and 2015, starting with the FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup in Costa Rica from March 15 to April 15, 2014, followed by the FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup in Canada from August 5 to August 20, 2014 and culminating with the FIFA Women's World Cup from June 6 to July 5, 2015.

Representatives of the eight participating teams set to take part in the CONCACAF Women's Under-20 Championship – host Cayman Islands, Costa Rica, Guatemala, Honduras, Jamaica, México, Trinidad & Tobago and the United States – have been invited for the live event, and those present will be available to media members at the conclusion of the draw.

The draw and logo unveiling will be streamed live on CONCACAF.com.

Media members interested in attending the live event should RSVP to media@concacaf.org, indicating full name, function, and medium represented, before 5pm EST on Monday, November 4.
