

PRESS RELEASE

The Confederation of North, Central America and Caribbean Association Football.

Guatemala's Mazariegos wins CONCACAF Interactive 2014 championship

Emerges from field of nearly 3,000 to top Hexagonal standings

MIAMI (Monday, June 9, 2014) - The Confederation of North, Central America and Caribbean Association Football (CONCACAF) announced today that Guatemala's Fred Mazariegos has been crowned the CONCACAF Interactive 2014 (CI14) champion.

Mazariegos, who goes under the Play Station 3 (PS3) gamer tag of mfnfr, defeated Trinidad & Tobago representative Damani Garcia 3-1 on the final day of play to top the Hexagonal table with 13 points, going unbeaten in five games with a 4-1-0 record.

As a result of capturing the CONCACAF Interactive title, Mazariegos won a trip to Brazil as a special guest at the FIFA Interactive World Cup (FIWC) 2014 Grand Final, July 2-3.

The Hexagonal's six participants, each representing a CONCACAF Member Association, qualified from a field of nearly 3,000 entrants.

They ultimately progressed via their play in Season 6 of the FIWC Online qualifiers in March 2014 accessed through EA SPORTS™ FIFA 14 on PS3.
For complete CI14 results and standings, click here.